Added authority for Brown at university

The Southern Illinois University board, at a special session Saturday in Carbondale, vested added governing authority in Chief of Board Staff James M. Brown.

Named permanent chairman of the Systems Council, Dr. Brown was empowered to interpret board wishes and policies to the two presidents, Dr. John S. Rendleman of SIU at Edwardsville and Dr. David R. Derge of SIU at Carbondale.

SIU Board Chairman Ivan Elliott Jr. described the action as "a pop, instead of a bang," adding that the two presidents will remain in charge of their campuses.

Elliott said Dr. Brown will supervise policy between the two campuses, unifying some of their operations, and will act as a liaison with surrounding communities.

The Systems Council composed of the three administrators was formed last March, with the two presidents alternating as its chairman and Dr. Brown serving as secretary.

The action does not represent a step toward a "super-president."

A closed-door board discussion took place Friday night, with an armed security officer blocking access.

Elliott said later that the board "discussed every possible idea," including firing Brown, Rendleman and Derge and hiring replacements. "We came to the conclusion that the present system had the problems, rather than the individuals involved."

Board members have indicated opposition to creation of a second board to govern SIUE. Legislation for separate boards currently is pending in the Illinois Senate.

The board voted Saturday to name Dr. Brown as "official representative of the Board of Trustees."

"Directions and interpretations of board policy given by the chief of board staff to a president will be the directions of the board unless a president asks the board to rescind the direction and the board does so."

In dissenting, Haney said, "I want to see the two presidents communicating directly with the board." He called for increased faculty, staff and student involvement in decisions.

Rowe commented that "the critical thing is to try and improve the image" of SIUE.

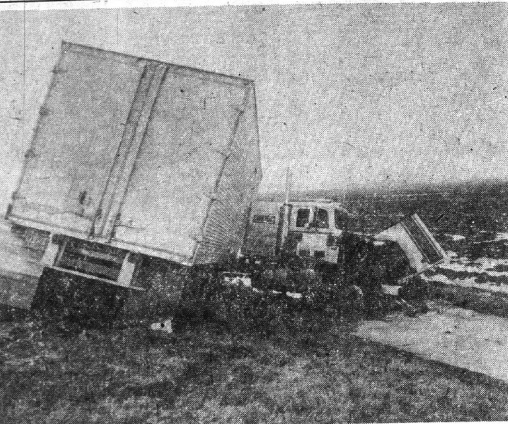

Elliott said Dr. Rendleman and Dr. Derge will continue to have direct access to trustees, adding that "both have informed me they try to work within the new system."

The new job duties are to be reviewed by the board in 90 days.

DR. JAMES M. BROWN

Elliott said the board acted because "the system had built into it elements of friction, and we're trying to remove them."

School's newspaper use attracts national acclaim

(First of two articles)

To make each educational experience more meaningful, each lesson more valuable, each student an active participant in the learning process.

These are the goals of classroom use of newspapers, and they have led to rapid progress for many pupils of Emerson Grade School in Granite City.

Unique in the United States in the extent to which it has adopted the newspaper-in-the-classroom approach to elementary instruction, Emerson will be both the host and the topic Thursday of the Granite City Area Council of Parent-Teacher Associations.

The Area PTA meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Emerson School, 21st and Benton Streets.

Principal Alfred J. Wilson perfected the newspaper instructional technique while a teacher at Lake Elementary School. When he moved to Emerson as principal, the entire faculty agreed to follow the local school first in the nation in this regard.

Acclaim which has been accorded Emerson has included extensive national recognition. A feature article appeared in Newsweek magazine this month.

Although textbooks are still used on a supplementary basis, each Emerson student—kindergarten through sixth grade—learns the bulk of his lessons each day through the newspaper.

Wilson initially arose early each morning to prepare lists of possible lesson topics, to be copied and distributed to each teacher.

The faculty members now handle this task on their own, adapting the selection of topics to the needs of each class.

Use of newspapers not only imparts timeliness to the studies, but also seems to motivate a higher percentage of youngsters to take an active interest in the lessons, it has been found.

Wilson's view is that all human experience and behavior are related to learning, and the newspaper articles cover a wider range of such experience and behavior than any other convenient source.

He comments that newspapers "can serve as a springboard into any subject area one may choose."

"It is a direct path to enabling students to gain, apply and transmit knowledge, and it stimulates them to seek facts that can be applied to everyday living."

Questions prepared by Principal Wilson from the Press-Record issue of Thursday, Jan. 10, illustrates a typical newspaper exercise as

Vehicles crash in fog

Dense fog added to the weather woes of the Quad-City area Thursday and Friday, resulting in a rash of accidents and slowing traffic to a crawl on many highways and streets where the fog was the heaviest.

Near-zero visibility resulted Friday morning in a traffic pileup on Interstate 270 between Routes 111 and 157 that caused injuries to four persons, blocked both the east and westbound lanes of the highway for hours and backed up traffic in both directions for four to five miles.

Eight persons were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital Thursday for injuries received in traffic accidents and three others were treated Friday. Most injury cases occurring during the periods of fog were minor and most of the victims were released from the hospital after treatment.

State police said accident injuries were kept to a minimum because of the slow pace motorists were forced to drive on fog-shrouded streets and highways. Literally hundreds of cars and trucks ran off the highways and went into ditches or became mired off the roadways, troopers reported. Rear-end collisions were the most frequent cause of accidents.

Eight cars and trucks were reported off the road about 10 a.m. Friday on Route 3 in the vicinity of the A. O. Smith Corp. plant, and another pileup of five vehicles was reported on Interstate 270 at Route 157. No injuries were reported in either instance.

Parents attended a special program presented by students in memory of the late civil rights leader and Nobel Peace Prize recipient. (Press-Record Photo)

The heavy fog, which weather bureau officials said was caused by an upper level of warm air meeting the cold air at the ground surface level, began early Thursday and hampered traffic throughout the area. The fog never cleared away and became denser in many parts of the area in mid-afternoon.

3 face U.S. gun charges

Three Quad-City residents have been indicted by a federal grand jury at Springfield for charges of violating federal firearms regulations.

The defendants are Clifford O. Hamilton, 1929 Sixth St., Madison; Jack W. Moad, 5 Fontainebleau Drive, and Frank Baugh, 3128 Carlson St.

The U.S. attorney's office at Springfield said they were among eight persons indicted by the federal grand jury last week after an eight-month investigation by undercover agents into alleged illegal gun sales.

Six of the eight, including the three Quad-City men, have been arrested. The penalty for the charge is from two to ten years imprisonment and a fine up to $10,000.

Payment refused for car recovery

East Side Divers Supply Co. officials have reacted strongly to refusal by Allstate Insurance Co. to pay a bill for recovery of one of the cars taken by East Side Divers from the bottom of the Mississippi River off Chouteau Island.

Ronald Kibort, an official of the diving group criticized the refusal in an open letter to an Allstate unit manager with copies sent to the governor and officials of Illinois and Missouri and to insurance officials.

Madison school pacts ok'd

A new working agreement for custodians, clerks and cooks employed by Madison School District 12 was approved by the Board of Education in a regular meeting Thursday night.

The new pact provides a salary increase of 15 cents per hour for custodians and cooks. Other benefits negotiated in the new agreement include a $5 increase in the district's payment on insurance premiums and an incentive bonus system under which the employees will receive pay for sick leave not used.

For the clerks, the agreement increases salaries $25 per month. Clerks also will receive the insurance benefit increase and the sick leave benefit.

The action concluded negotiations for new agreements with all school employees except those in administrative positions. This agreement is among items scheduled for discussion in a special meeting of the board Tuesday night, according to School Superintendent John Palfiech.

The board approved a resolution setting April 15 as the first day for filing; Mar. 22, last day for filing; Mar. 26, last day to withdraw; Apr. 8, last day to request an absentee ballot by mail; Apr. 10, last day to request an absentee ballot in person; and April 23, last day for conducting the vote canvass. Johnson indicated he will seek re-election. Derner was not present at the meeting.

Palfiech reported to the board that a District Facility plan has been submitted to the Capitol Development Board in Springfield for construction of a new middle grade (6, 7, 8) school. If approved, the state would pay 70 per cent of the construction costs. The exact site for the new building has not been determined.

Offer rejected; 22 builders indicted

Former Lt. Gov. Paul Simon said during the weekend he was offered $250,000 during his 1972 primary campaign for governor by a man who wanted to pick a director of transportation for the state if Simon was elected. The man's name and other information has been turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation by Simon and his former campaign aide.

The FBI is investigating alleged bid rigging on Illinois highway projects.

Auto stolen at gunpoint

A man armed with a pistol forced his way into the auto of Pat Eaton, 2906 E. 25th St., at Madison Avenue and Niedringhaus Avenue at 10:30 p.m. Saturday.

The victim told police the man said, "Someone stole my car so I am taking yours." He then drove the car to a point near Granite City Steel Co. where he let the woman out of the car.

The auto later was recovered at Grand and Niedringhaus avenues. The robber was described as about 20 with blond hair and a fair complexion.

Mark School Nurse day

School nurses serving in the three school districts of the Quad-City area will mark School Nurse Day which is to be observed statewide Wednesday. A luncheon honoring the nurses was held Friday at Charlie's Restaurant, and was attended by school administrators and Mayors Paul Schuler of Granite City and Mike Sasyk of Madison.

Vasil Eftimoff, administrative assistant to the Granite City superintendent of schools and director of pupil personnel services, directed brief remarks to the administrators Eftimoff told the meeting.

"Rather than be recognized by others, these nurses have asked me to express for them their willingness to work with you in any way possible to help meet the total health needs of our community. "Traditionally, school nurses in our area have served in helping to plan and implement health programs designed to benefit our citizens.

"They are active in their own professional organizations and share the responsibility for serving on committees and boards concerned with health needs and health care, such as immunization clinics, mental health, hearing conservation, social concerns, United Fund and various health education programs.

William Barnhart, 78, of 1854 S. 6th St., Concord, Calif., died at home at 3 p.m. Wednesday. He moved to Concord in 1953 after living here 35 years. He retired at General Steel Industries where he worked as a rod carrier.

Mr. Barnhart is survived by his widow Mrs. Lillian Barnhart of Concord, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Hartzell of Bothell, Wash., and Virginia Kelly of Concord, Calif.

Mrs. Bernadine Sido dies

Mrs. Bernadine Christine (Troecker) Sido, 82, of 2441 Iowa St., a charter member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, died at 4:25 a.m. Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. She had been ill two weeks and hospitalized about the same length of time.

Born in Mitchell, Mrs. Sido had resided in the Quad-City area her entire life and in Granite City for the past 35 years. Many years ago she taught at a rural school in the Chouteau Island area.

Mrs. Sido was the oldest member of Sacred Heart Altar Society. Her father, the late Frank Troecker, was a noted political figure, farmer and insurance agent in the Mitchell area.

She also was preceded in death by her mother, two sisters, Miss Lena Troecker

Voter registration periods scheduled

A series of special registration periods in which new voters may register and registered voters may correct records where needed will be conducted in the Quad-Cities by the office of County Clerk Eulalia Holt, it was announced today.

The special registration centers will be conducted in Granite City, Madison, Venice, Pontoon Beach and State Park Place, Miss Holt said.

Voters may register at any of the centers that are most conveniently located. New voters over 18 years of age may register to vote in the March 19 primary election of state, district and county candidates, as well as County Board members.

Evening hours at child center

The Early Childhood Education Center on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will be open four evenings each week, beginning tonight, according to William R. Whiteside, chairman of the SIUE department of special education.

The center, located in Building 124, will be open from 5 to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, in addition to regular hours of 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Whiteside said the purpose of the evening hours is to provide care for children while their parents attend classes. At least one parent of each child must be enrolled at SIUE. The charge for the service will be 50 cents per hour.

Mrs. Sandra LaVern Wilson, director of the center, said parents will be required to leave copies of their class schedules on file at the center for emergency notification purposes.

Children ages three through five are accepted by the center. Whiteside said the evening schedule is an experimental program being offered in response to a number of requests from students who have inquired about "babysitting" services.

The center, an official observation facility for the SIUE School of Education, is filled to its capacity of 40 children during daytime hours. Mrs. Wilson said the center has a waiting list for the day schedule.

Whiteside reports children will not be permitted to spend more than eight hours per day at the facility.

The center provides snacks and milk, but the children bring their own lunches.

American National elects Vasilloff, promotes Giese

Kiro Vasilloff, a resident of Granite City since 1921, was elected to the board of directors of the American National Bank of Granite City at the annual stockholders' meeting last week.

Vasilloff, a retired grocery merchant, resides with his wife, Milka, and daughter, Anna Mae, at 2355 Emert Ave. They are the parents of five children.

Currently, Vasilloff is a member of the board of the Bulgarian Holy Trinity Church and a trustee of the Sunset Hills Cemetery Association.

David Giese, cashier of the bank, was promoted to vice president-cashier.

Giese, his wife, Jane, and their three children live at 3157 Willow Ave. He has been employed at the American National Bank for four years.

Presently, he is president of the Southwestern Illinois Chapter of the Bank Administration Institute.

Directors of the bank re-elected were Henry D. Karandjeff, Ernest A. Karandjeff, Arthur F. Buente, Dr. A. D. Karandjeff, William M. Kozayk, Robert A. Maddox and Ernest B. Beckhaus.

Officers re-elected by the board were Henry D. Karandjeff, chairman; Ernest A. Karandjeff, president; Allen L. Jessee, executive vice president; Charles Baricovic, vice president; Leo Roth, assistant vice president; Mrs. Helen A. Mangoff, assistant cashier; and Mrs. Darlene

KIRO VASILLOFF

Palovich, assistant cashier.

Chairman Henry D. Karandjeff, in his message to the stockholders, said, "Last year was an excellent growth year for American National and the bank's assets, exceeded $13 million."

"The rate of dividends was increased from 30 to 35 cents per share last July and another increase to 40 cents per share was declared to the stockholders of record as of Dec. 26, 1973."

"Deposits have increased over $1,900,000 or a percentage gain of approximately 16.10 percent. Capital funds have increased over $75,000, or about 11 percent."

DAVID GIESE

"This fine growth can be attributed to a number of factors: expansions in the adjacent shopping centers, the extra efforts of our employees to render faster and more efficient service; and the continued loyalty and support of our many customers."

"As we project our future," Chairman Karandjeff continued, "we see many opportunities for further growth."

"The bank's growth is directly proportional to the growth of the community it serves, and we see the Quad-Cities as growing both commercially and residentially."

He concluded, "In spite of the many problems our nation and community face today, we at American National Bank are optimistic about the future."

"We feel that the United States should be every bit as good as 1973, as long as we don't let the recession prophets talk us into their pessimistic views of prosperity and progress."

Richter will lead Gateway planning

Eugene G. Moody, executive director of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, announced the appointment of Alan C. Richter as assistant director of the Council. In this role, Richter will be responsible for supervising all Council planning activities.

Moody said the appointment will help coordinate the general and transportation planning activities of the council, previously in separate divisions.

Moody said the move is aimed at the "increasingly important role of the Council in ensuring that plans are implemented."

Moody said.

"The Council is nearing completion of a number of plans on a variety of fronts, including such areas as regional solid waste management, rapid transit, railroad relocation and port development."

"An on-time in the eight-year history of the Council has the need for action-based on soundly-conceived regional plans—been more evident. It is anticipated that Richter will play a major role to effect action in these areas."

Richter comes to the East-West Council from St. Clair County, where he served for the its needs in spite of the energy shortage.

With that in mind, we are proceeding along with plans to buy new construction equipment and upgrade our present truck fleet.

I think that the present oil situation will cause an increase in the consumption of electricity, primarily in the form of electric heating.

This, of course, will work itself back to the generating source and will necessitate the construction of new utility lines and continued maintenance of existing facilities.

I don't look for any substantial growth in 1974, but feel the year should be every bit as good as 1973, as long as we don't let the recession prophets talk us into their pessimistic views of prosperity and progress."

Higher Medicare costs absorbed

Chicago-based Blue Cross and Blue Shield will absorb the increases in the Medicare deductible and co-payments which went into effect Jan. 1, for their members over 65, it has been announced by Robert M. Redinger, president.

"This amounts to an automatic increase in benefits for the more than 220,000 subscribers of the Blue Cross 65 and Blue Shield 65 program, without added costs to them," Redinger said.

The formulas for increasing the Part A (hospital) deductible and co-payments are written into the Medicare law. Medicare patients now must pay an $84 deductible upon entering a hospital, an increase of $12 from the 1973 deductible.

Redinger noted that the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Medicare supplemental program covers the deductible.

There will be three other major changes in Medicare payments, all covered by the supplemental program, Redinger said.

For a hospital stay between 61 and 90 days, the daily charge to Medicare patients has been increased from $18 to $21.

For a hospital stay extending beyond 90 days (requiring use of the allotted 60 life-time reserve days), the patient's co-payment has been increased from $36 to $42.

For an extended care facility stay of more than 20 days, an increase of $150.

Area bird watchers have fewer to watch

The Illinois Conservation Department is going to do something for the birds—it's going to count them.

The bird census will be the first step in starting an annual winter bird count in the state, which may show when certain species begin to diminish in numbers and approach the "endangered species" status.

Vernon Kleen, "non-game" specialist in the department's wildlife division, reports that the first winter bird count will be made between now and Feb. 15, utilizing two dozen or more volunteers.

Most of the spotters will be members of the Audubon Society, which conducts its own annual Christmas bird count.

Specific five-mile routes will be laid out within a circle with a 15-mile radius, and the volunteer will walk this route starting at sunrise and stopping four hours later.

The volunteers will be asked to note every bird they see or hear, and to record both the various species encountered and the numbers of each.

Each specific route will be walked only on one day during the month-long bird census, which means that individuals will be able to do several different routes during the period, Kleen said.

The final results, when tabulated, will be sent to the federal Wildlife Research Center in Maryland, and the Illinois totals will be included in the International Bird Census program.

The period ending Feb. 15 was selected, Kleen said, to take advantage of a totally stable bird population, when no migrations have yet begun.

He anticipates that results in the next several years will show declines in population of almost all birds recorded, with the exception probably of only starlings, house sparrows and the like.

Should the Monk parakeet become well established in Illinois, and repeat its breeding patterns from other places, it, too, could easily become a bird whose numbers would continue to grow, rather than dwindle.

But overall populations of all other birds appear to be taking a downward trend, Kleen said.

Dismissed town highway worker topic of board

The issue of a dismissed Nameoki Township Highway Department employee occupied much of the time of the Nameoki Town Board last week.

A letter from Supervisor Louis Whittlel on the question was read at the meeting and the board adjourned into a lengthy executive session afterward to further discuss possible reinstatement of the employee. He has not been reinstated, however.

The man in question, Jack Taviner, wrote a letter after the incident to the Town Board of Auditors but the auditors declined to read the letter at the meeting. Instead, a response letter from Whittlel to the board was read.

In the letter, Whittlel disagreed and said Taviner's letter should be read at the meeting. "As a resident he is entitled to have it read publicly," Whittlel said in his letter.

He continued, "Normally, I would say that this matter was up to the highway commissioner, but, however, Mr. Taviner has been approved and employed under the Federal Revenue Sharing Fund.

"As per our contract with the Highway Department, with our revenue sharing funds, it is the duty of the Town Board to approve or to disapprove said employee.

"To my knowledge, none of the Town Board was consulted on this matter. As a member of the Board of Auditors, I should be consulted.

"I have heard both sides of this problem, after the fact, and it is my opinion that Mr. Taviner was dismissed for reasons unrelated to his employment.

"To be as fair as we can about this problem, I will entertain a motion to call a closed hearing between all parties involved, to determine the best possible solution after the town clerk presents this letter at our next regular meeting," the letter suggested.

Whittlel, the Town Board, Highway Commissioner Albert Bell and a union representative then met in a closed session to further discuss the issue.

At that meeting, the letter from Taviner was read. It follows:

"I, Jack Taviner, have worked almost two years for the Nameoki Township Highway Department. I was terminated Dec. 3, 1973, because of union activities. I have not had a chance to present my side of what did happen.

"Highway Commissioner Albert E. Bell also is undecided because he has given different reasons for the action. Commissioner Bell has refused advice and requests from Supervisor Louis Whittlel and members of the board on this matter.

"Supervisor Whittlel has been more than fair and has done as much as he can for me. When he does try and help in any way, the highway commissioner tells Whittlel that he is running the highway department—keep out!

"During the Christmas snow, Bell refused emergency snow equipment to the Pontoon village (Pontoon Beach) and yet his foreman, Elmer Sullivan, used a man and equipment to clean out driveways on Shirlene and Clinton drives, in which he lives.

"I think if Supervisor Louis Whittlel and members of the board would have a meeting with the employees of the Highway Department they might find out who and what is causing all the confusion.

"Commissioner Bell has openly stated that anyone that doesn't like the way he runs things doesn't have to stay out here.

"New employees are started at different rates of pay or whatever he wants to give them. Some without experience have been started with a higher pay rate than someone with experience.

"One time they use seniority, and the next day they say there is no seniority. Due to the lack of proper supervision the men are confused as to how the work is to be done.

"Foreman Elmer Sullivan will tell different men on the same job different ways it is to be done. Bell has checked different jobs many times and asked the men where Sullivan was. Most of the time the men didn't know where he was.

"Sullivan has also had the property equipment on private property cleaning up broken concrete for a precinct committee woman who lives on Paul Street.

"The men employed under Commissioner Bell have no rights and are discriminated against. Maybe with a union the men will at least have their rights protected," Taviner's letter concluded.

Bell said after the meeting the firing did not involve Taviner's union activities and added he did not intend to reinstate Taviner.

"He did not come up with anything," to convince me otherwise," Bell said. The highway commissioner added that the firing was the result of several factors which he did not care to disclose.

Susskind will increase his operatic conducting

Walter Suskind, who will leave his post as music director of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra at the end of the 1974-75 season, intends to continue his worldwide appearances as guest conductor and to increase his operatic conducting, an activity for which he has had little time during his years in this area.

"When I leave St. Louis, I will leave behind seven years of my musical life and much of my heart," Suskind says. "But after seven seasons, having given all of my best efforts and utter devotion, I think the time has come to turn over the leadership of this marvelous orchestra to a new man."

"America has the richest orchestral life in the world and this orchestra is in the very front rank. A farsighted board and a first-rate management team have diligently worked with me to help put it there."

During Suskind's tenure in St. Louis he enlarged the orchestra from 80 to 96 musicians, adding assistant principal players and increasing the number of string players.

Of the 96 musicians now in the orchestra, 45 were engaged by Suskind, including 21 of the 33 principals, associate principals and assistant principals.

Season subscriptions to the orchestra rose from 5,200 to 14,300 and total attendance from 283,400 to over 500,000. Subscription concerts were increased from 56 to 83, and income from ticket sales more than doubled.

During Suskind's tenure, the St. Louis Symphony will have played seven concerts in New York's Carnegie Hall, three in the John F. Kennedy Center in Washington and two at Orchestra Hall in Chicago.

Suskind was the first conductor to appear in both the opera house and the concert hall of the Kennedy Center, and recently conducted the Melbourne Symphony's first appearance in the new Sydney Opera House in Australia.

The Symphony Society's music committee has begun the search for a successor.

orchestra as a frequent guest conductor."

Suskind became music director here in September 1968, having previously served as music director of the Royal Carl Rosa Opera Company, the Scottish National Orchestra, the Victoria Symphony in Melbourne, Australia, the Toronto Symphony and the Aspen Music Festival.

Born in Prague, Czechoslovakia, in 1913, he was trained as a pianist, composer and conductor at the State Conservatory in Prague, and at the age of 20 became assistant conductor of the Prague German Opera House.

Suskind is the eighth music director in the 94-year history of America's second oldest major symphony orchestra.

He succeeded Edoardo De Cavallo, who held the position for five years.

During Suskind's tenure in St. Louis he enlarged the orchestra from 80 to 96 musicians, adding assistant principal players and increasing the number of string players.

Burglary most frequent crime

A total of 231 crimes was committed in Granite City during November, with the bulk of them burglaries, Officer Roy Koberna, community relations officer for the Granite City Police Department, told the Breakfast Kiwanis Club at its Thursday meeting at Charlie's Restaurant.

Koberna explained how the community relations program helps reduce crime. For children, the program is known as "Officer Friendly."

It uses a variety of approaches, including magic shows, lectures, films and coloring books, for kindergarten through sixth-grade children to teach them safety.

The younger children are taught about cross walks, bike riding, and watching out for strangers. Sixth graders are presented with a program called "Book Him," emphasizing the dangers of shoplifting. All programs show the policeman as a child's friend.

Programs offered adults by the police include a self-defense course for the elderly, and consumer swindling.

It was announced that Alden Barber, chief Scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America, with offices at North Brunswick, N. J., will be the guest speaker at the Thursday noon meeting of the Optimist Club, Optimist President David Fox, in a letter to the Kiwanis Club, issued an invitation to the Kiwanians to attend.

Marvin VanMeire, executive director of the Tri-City Area YMCA, and volunteer "Y" workers, will attend the group's regular meeting Thursday morning. At that meeting, Dr. Scott Hendrickson, chairman of the area wide "Y" membership drive, officially will launch the event.

BURGLARS NET CASH, TV
A burglary at the home of Clarence Weaver, 3440 Logan Ave., reported at 2:10 a.m. Friday, netted the thieves a portable television set, a quantity of women's jewelry in a black jewelry case which was taken from a dresser drawer. Entry into the dwelling apparently was gained through the front door.

Ask the Governor

Q. A recent article in the "Southern Illinoisian" told of the impending collapse of a structure which played an important role in our state's economic and cultural history—the Old State Bank Building in Old Shawneetown. The five massive stone columns at the bank's entrance are considered architecturally among the finest of their kind in the United States. Restoration of this landmark could make it a tourism attraction of which all Illinoisans could be proud—James L. Seed, Marion.

A. Steps are already being taken to halt the deterioration of this historical monument.

Conservation Director Anthony Dean said plans are being made to stabilize the foundation by pressure grouting; to replace the temporary roof with one of copper; to replace the weakened interior joists and to restore the exterior walls. Restoration cost has been estimated in excess of $100,000. Additional work will be done as part of the Department's construction program.

Meanwhile, I hope the community will support this program as they did the 1st Territorial Bank Building also located in Old Shawneetown.

Chemical price booklet issued

The Department of Local Government Affairs has completed work on a price comparison manual which will assist local officials in purchasing widely used chemicals. Department Director Frank A. Kirk said the purpose of the "Local Government Purchasing Guide for Commonly Used Chemicals" is to give local level government units the ability to compare prices and suppliers when purchasing chemicals.

Included in the guide are: addresses of the chemical companies mentioned, prices, freight policies and information on the Illinois Joint Purchasing Program.

"Price variations and sales techniques have contributed to the confusion surrounding chemical products. The guide will help alleviate this condition and hopefully lower costs," said Kirk.

It may be obtained at no cost from the Office of Community Services, Department of Local Government Affairs, 303 E. Monroe St., Springfield, Ill. 62706.

Y drive for members

A Western Round-Up theme will be used by the local YMCA for a one-day new membership drive Thursday, according to Dr. Scott Hendrickson, general chairman.

Dr. Hendrickson has recruited four division chairmen: Jerry Maers, Mrs. Mary Sedekum, Ray Smith and Philip Heath. The goal for the drive is 216 members including men, women and children. This will represent an approximate 15 per cent increase in membership.

The Round-Up will begin with a 7 a.m. breakfast at Charlie's with the morning Kiwanis Club. Volunteer workers and drive leaders will attend. Irv Slate Jr. will be in charge of the program for the breakfast which will include role-playing skits and a question and answer period. The drive will culminate Thursday evening at the Y as workers report in with their "Round-Up" results.

School lunch aid is higher

An increase in federal reimbursements for school lunch and breakfast programs will bring an estimated $2,291,000 in additional reimbursements to Illinois schools.

The increase, effective for lunches and breakfasts served from Jan. 1, 1974, to June 30, 1974, was made by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in accordance with legislation passed in November. The child nutrition legislation calls for payment rates to be adjusted twice each year.

During fiscal year 1973, Illinois schools served 161,972,855 lunches under the National Lunch Program, and a total of 5,619,992 breakfasts.

Of those, 62,072,620 lunches and 5,250,277 breakfasts were served free to needy children.

Federal reimbursement for the lunches totaled $3,823,357, and for breakfasts, $965,646. Those figures do not include food commodities provided by the federal government.

Reimbursements are made through the School Foods Section of the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Reimbursement rates have been increased as follows:

Lunches, from 10 to 10.5 cents.

Free lunches, 45 to 47.25 cents.

Reduced-price lunches, 35 to 37.25 cents.

Breakfasts, from 8 to 8.5 cents.

Free breakfasts, 20 to 21 cents.

Youths arrested

Two youths were crushed beside an auto near the Granite City Moose Lodge, 19th and Adams streets, ran away when accosted by patrolling officers at 9 p.m. Thursday, dropping behind them two gasoline cans and a siphoning hose, police reported.

Police said two youths were arrested a few minutes later at 20th Street and Cleveland Boulevard. Charged with disorderly conduct was William J. Brannan, 17, of 2402 Nevada Ave., who was released on payment of $25 cash bail. The second youth, 15 years old, was released to his parents.

Reduced-price breakfasts, 15 to 15.75 cents.

The payment rates are adjusted in line with payments in the "Food Away From Home" series of the Consumer Price Index. This is the first such adjustment, and reflects price changes in the period of September through November 1973.

Car hit 3 times in hit-run mishap

Otto Leimkuhler Jr., 3606 Ruth Drive, reported that his 1966 auto was struck three times by a late model Chevrolet whose driver left the scene at 6:40 a.m. Thursday on Pontoon Road at Franklin Avenue.

The motorist who police hit westbound vehicle initially was struck in the rear as he slowed down at the Franklin Avenue stop sign. The impact turned the Leimkuhler car toward an adjacent parking lot with the hit-and-run vehicle then clipping the left rear fender spinning the auto around again and striking the right rear door.

The Chevrolet operator drove east on Pontoon Road without stopping, Leimkuhler said.

GC officer finds purse in Venice

The owner of a woman's blue purse decorated with red, white and blue beading, which contains over $6 in cash in coins, a small prayer book of Bible verses and keys, may claim her property from Assistant Police Chief George Teller at the Granite City police station.

Teller found the purse Thursday partially submerged in water on the parking area at Venice. Madison American Legion Post 307 on Broadway, Venice, where the assistant chief had attended a meeting of the Madison County Police Association.

Remodeling bids authorized

The Madison County Board has authorized bidding for the remodeling of the first floor of the former Bank of Edwardsville Building which has been purchased for additional county offices.

The first floor is to be utilized by the Madison County Sheriff's Department which now is housed in separate quarters near the county courthouse.

Also authorized for bidding were a proposed sunroom at the Madison County Nursing Home and a project to cover and insulate against fire, 20 doors and some transoms at the Madison County Shelter Care home. Bids also are to be accepted for gasoline and number two furnace oil for the Sheriff's Department. Authorization was given to the Recreation and Education Committee of the County Board to purchase a flat-bed trailer from H. M. Dinzler Equipment Co., St. Louis, for $1,555, the low bid received.

The Road and Bridge committee also was authorized to purchase four trucks on low bids from Butler Chevrolet for $6,139, $6,239, $7,239 and $3,347, and a motorized road grader from John Fabick Tractor Co. for $34,442.

Claims approved by the board included one for $8,177 for operation of the Quad-City Center, Mental Health Clinic.

Learning Co-op classes planned

The Southwestern Illinois Learning Co-op at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, also known as the Free University, has announced its winter quarter schedule of open classes.

Free University classes are taught in an informal atmosphere by many individuals who want to share their skills, talents or interests. Anyone can attend the sessions, which are all free of charge. No college or high school credits are required and there is no grading system.

People of all ages and educational and occupational backgrounds are welcome to attend the classes, according to Tim Tighe, coordinator of special programs in the Student Activities Office at SIUE.

Nine classes are beginning next week. They are: basic auto mechanics; gay liberation; transactional analysis; Islam; yoga; mushroom investigation; basic folk guitar; Bhagavad-Gita and Bhakti yoga; and Sherlock Holmes and the Gaslight Era.

Information on dates, times or instructors is available from the Free University Office, located in the student activities area of the University Center, telephone 692-3689.

Tigers too tough for North, South; Steelers top O'Fallon

By KEN THOMPSON
Press-Record Sports Writer
In the Orient, 1974 is the year of the Tiger. To the Warriors of GCHS North and the Steelers of GCHS South, Southwestern Illinois is also the year of the Tiger.

The Edwardsville Tigers downed both local high schools this weekend, 73-34 here Friday over South and 75-53 Saturday over North at Edwardsville.

GCHS North entered Saturday's contest fresh from a 56-52 win at O'Fallon and South was destined to lose here again Saturday, 68-35 to East St. Louis.

The Tigers outscored South 20-0 in the first quarter and 16-12 in the second period for a 36-12 halftime lead. It was 56-16 at the end of three periods.

Edwardsville and South were even from the foul line, the Warriors hitting eight of 13 off 16 Tiger fouls, and the Tigers eight of 17 on 17 fouls.

Ken Bertrand led the Warriors with ten points, Schoedey tallied six, Kirk Champion six, Dale Williams four, and Martinez, Keith Gehling, Jim Nolan and Bob Hutchings, two each.

The Steelers' victory at O'Fallon can be attributed to North's sagging zone defense and the 24 points of Dave Schnefke, who hit 11 of 21 shots from the field.

Schnefke also pulled down 11

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

rebounds before fouling out midway through the final period.

The entire game might have been swayed in favor of the Panthers if the enemy had completed more than its 21 of 58 from the field. North was 26 of 60. Quarter scores showed North ahead 16-12, 25-21 and 41-33.

Greg Gauert scored 14, Daryl Page 10, and Mike Waldo and Cary Simpson each four points.

Edwardsville led North 16-3 and 40-16 but the third quarter belonged to the Steelers, who pulled to within 10 points of Edwardsville by racking up 27 to the Tigers' 13. But the Tiger had a 22-10 advantage in the fourth period.

North hit only 13 of 61 field goals and three shots from the foul line. North committed 21 fouls to Edwardsville's 10.

Edwardsville capitalized on North fouls to hit on 13 of 25 free throws while adding 31 field goals.

Aiding North were Schnefke with 22 points, Daryl Page 13, Mike Waldo and Greg Gauert eight each, and Gene Logas two.

At East St. Louis Saturday, the host Flyers romped to 19-10, 36-16 and 46-18 quarter leads on 30 field goals and eight free throws while committing 19 fouls.

South, again hurt by an injury to Mike Martinez, could only muster 35 points while holding its fouls to 14.

Bob Hutchings and Ken Bertrand each tallied eight points, Martinez scored five, Kirk Champion six, Dale Williams and Rick Fancher four apiece and Greg Terrell, two.

Champions were: 75 pounds—Chris Whelan (G); 98—Greg Hoese (C); 105—Chuck Duckworth (C); 119—Darrell Hasty (C); 126—Tom Ellison (P); 135—Mike Forshee (C); 144—John Hartline (G); 170—Mark Lemp (P); and heavyweight—Steve Curless (C).

Coolidge had a 15-point lead at the end of the first round. Grigsby was second with 12, Roana had 11, and Prather 9½ points for fourth place.

The three Granite City schools produced nine weight class champions—Coolidge with five and Prather and Grigsby two each.

Trojans capture 2 of 3

Coach Larry Graham's Madison Trojans are 12-5 after a busy weekend. They lost 76-73 in overtime to the Okaville Rockets here Thursday but won 79-48 over Pacific, Mo., here Friday and then prevailed 72-51 at Pinckneyville Saturday.

Pinckneyville was hot in shooting but was limited on its attempts, meshing 24 of 35 to the Trojans' 30 of 65. MHS hit 12 of 20 free throws to the hosts' three of eight. Madison's rebounding edge was 40-30.

Quarter leads were 18-6, 35-22 and 55-34. Ron Glasper scored 20, Alvin Wigfall 12, Darrell Franklin and Willie Shearby nine each, Chris Stanley eight, Ron Henke six and Norman Whitecotton, Ron Jones and Emmitt Timmons, two apiece.

Madison's strong win over Pacific followed announcement that MHS has been seeded first and will, draw a bye in the first round of the Dupo regional in March.

The Trojans looked sharp in leading Pacific 23-8, 41-22 and 59-33 at the quarters. They hit 37 field goals and five of 11 foul shots, recovering 48 rebounds. Pacific hit only 18 goals and turned the ball over to Madison 27 times.

Rudolph Bradley scored 16, Glasper 11, Stanley 10, Wigfall 14, Henke seven, Jones and Franklin six each, Whitecotton four, Shearby three and Timmons, two.

MHS led Okaville 20-15 and 37-35 but it was 50-50 after three periods. Madison edged in front 60-57 with 30 seconds left but Dan Schuessler grabbed a missed Trojan foul shot and dashed to the other end of the court for a layup.

In overtime, Wigfall made a three-point play. After an enemy goal and an MHS free throw made it 73-71, Phil Leadendecker tied the game with two free throws.

With a minute left, Madison lost possession and Okaville played keep-away. Three seconds were left when Schuessler took an under-the-basket pass and dropped the ball through the hoop.

Wigfall led MHS with 17.

Both Granite City high schools posted wrestling victories on the road this weekend.

South saw double action, defeating Alton 37-14 Friday and Collinsville 46-8 Saturday. GCHS North captured its only meet in a thriller Friday, 24-19, at Belleville West.

The South Warriors upped their season record to 14-2. Alton earned its four points by wrestling to a draw in the 185 and heavyweight bouts as the Warriors swept the other 10 matches.

Highlighting the dual meet was a win by Warrior John Niebur, 14-4 at 126 pounds, which made him the first South wrestler to post 20 wins this season. Niebur upped his record Saturday with a 14-2 decision over his Collinsville foe.

South captured 10 bouts, lost one, and had a draw at Collinsville.

Warrior results in both meets (pins indicated by times and Alton scores first) were:

98 pounds—Woody Halbrook, won forfeit, 16-8; 105—Jim Caschetta, 2-38 and Steve Garland, 17-3, 11-2; Pat MacMillan, 1-33, 8-0; 119—Kevin Page, 17-1, 11-8; 132—Dan Heath, 5-55, 2-54; 138—Dan Heath, 5-46, 5-15; 145—Dave Rushing, 1-03, 7-3; 155—

Ed Fetter of South had the fastest pin of the meet, 20 seconds in the 119 class, and Steeler Charles Evans, at 145, defeated his foe by the greatest margin in the tourney, 22-5.

Hot stove conference on baseball

The second annual Hot Stove Conference on modern baseball concepts will be held Saturday, Jan. 26, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Roy E. Lee, SIUC varsity baseball coach has announced.

The conference will run from 8:30 a.m. through 3:45 p.m. in Meridian Hall at the University Center.

It has been designed to help high school, American Legion and amateur baseball coaches upgrade their programs and improve their teaching skills.

The conference will permit those attending to participate in the proceedings.

Three experts in their fields will be at the conference: Arnold E. Copeland, Richard C. Jones and Richard Folkers.

Copeland, head baseball coach at Lewis and Clark Community College, will speak on offensive drills in baseball. Before going to Lewis and Clark, he led the University of Missouri-St. Louis Rivermen to the NCAA college division finals at Springfield, Ill.

Jones, who was reared in Herrin, has been head baseball coach at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale since 1969. He did his undergraduate work at SIUC and was graduated in 1961.

He served as freshman football coach and assistant basketball coach at Jacksonville High School, 1961-62, and head baseball coach and assistant basketball coach at MacMurray College from 1966 through 1968.

In 1968, Jones took the assistant baseball coach's job at SIUC and has led the Salukis to four straight winning seasons: 1970-71, 71-72, 72-73, and 73-74.

Jones will lead the conference in "defensive drills" sessions. Folkers, a St. Louis Cardinals pitcher, will speak on pitching. He went to the Red Birds in 1961 and traded with the New York Mets.

Persons wishing to register for the conference may call Walter Bartholomew at the SIUC Office of Conferences and Institutes, 692-2660, or Coach Lee, 692-2444.

Venice wins 10th, 11th

Venice enters this week's Dupo tournament with an 11-2 record after posting two victories this weekend. On Friday the Red Devils won at East St. Louis Lincoln 83-62. They repeated their domination of St. Henry of Belleville 76-50 here Saturday night.

St. Henry is first on the agenda for Venice in the opening round at Dupo. The Belleville squad led Venice 17-14 after the first period, but Venice outscored St. Henry 26-13, 22-11 and 14-9 in the last three periods.

St. Henry made 12 of 16 shots from the foul line while Venice hit eight of 10. Venice committed 14 fouls, four more than the enemy.

Venice was led by the 33 points of Ron Henry and 22 by J. B. Harmon. Mike Logan scored eight, Reggie Gardner five and Tony Sifton and Jeff Corrie, four each.

The Red Devils outscored Lincoln, in all but the final period; quarter scores were 19-17, 42-28 and 58-35 as Henry hit 26 points, Gardner 18, Harmon 15, Sifton 12, Logan five, Corrie two and Ron Bailey and Ron Taylor, one each.

Four inches taller than any

Lincoln player, Henry led rebounding with 20 and hit 11 of 18 from the field and four of six at the free throw line.

Venice will defend its Dupo title this week, starting at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Warrior five to meet host school at Salem

Salem Community High School has been seeded fourth this year in its own tournament, which begins Wednesday. The Wildcats will not see action until Thursday, when they clash headon at 8:30 p.m. with the Warriors of GCHS South.

Alton, defeated for the first time this season by East St. Louis, received the top seeding. Mater Dei of Breese is second and Effingham third. Breese lost its only contest last week to GCHS North.

Salem is 10-2 on the season, having lost to Lawrenceville early in the season and to Arlington in quarterfinal action at the Centra holiday tournament. Salem had downed Pinckneyville 54-34 in the first round at Centra. In recent action, the Wildcats posted a 61-54 victory over Carmi last week.

Two players, 6-4 Ron Eller and 6-3 Mark Davis, head the Wildcat striking power, each averaging 15 points a game. Complementing the two are 6-4 Tom Tate, 6-2 Nick Sigerist and 6-4 Ken Slater.

Granite City last year was eliminated from the tournament after losing 61-57 to Mater Dei in its second game. Paris, last year's champion, defeated the local Warriors 73-48 the first day. Dave Schnef and Greg Gauen, now with the GCHS North cage squad, tallied 18 points apiece last year for South.

The 1974 South tournament team is headed by Mike Martinez, Dale Williams, Ken Bertrand, Keith Gehling and Bob Hutchings. Martinez is the only Warrior who has participated in the annual event at Salem.

A complete schedule of the tournament is listed elsewhere in today's Press-Record.

Cougars suffer first mat loss

SIUE wrestling coach Larry Kristoff saw his team's unbeaten dual meet record go down the drain Thursday evening as his Cougars split a double dual meet at Warrensburg, Mo.

After coasting to a 26-11 victory over host Central Missouri State U., a team that had defeated SIUE each of the past two seasons, the Cougars dropped a close 19-17 decision to Kansas State University. Earlier in the season, SIUE had downed the Wildcats, 21-13.

Vital to continue present firms and attract new plants to area

By CHESTER L. BAKER

President, The Cities Area Chamber of Commerce

The road ahead for 1974 can either be smooth or rough, depending entirely on our attitude. There is no way any community worthwhile can plead poverty with a Gross National Product of over a trillion dollars.

Of course, there is always the possibility—due to the energy crisis—that it may slack off a bit, but it can do a lot of it before we ever hit the poverty level.

I believe we have overreacted to this energy crisis, and when we all start working as a team it will evaporate—at least it will lessen to a point where we can live with it and prosper.

Obviously, we are somewhat short on industry here right now.

With the geographical location we have, the labor supply, transportation, central location, and all of the other favorable factors, there is no good reason why additional industry shouldn't seek us out and locate here.

Naturally, we want to take care of the industry we have. There is no way we can live without them.

Their payrolls, their tax contributions, their expertise, all contribute to make this a viable, growing community—a good place to live. We feel sure that labor and political leaders are ready and willing to create the kind of climate industry needs to grow in.

"The Chamber of Commerce is well aware of the need for additional industry.

We are doing everything in our power—and increasing our efforts—to get additional industry, and our Industrial Development Committee is leaving no stone unturned to invite them and encourage them to move in.

We believe also that Downtown Granite City must be revitalized and made attractive enough to attract people from the entire area to come downtown to bank and shop, to patronize the savings and loan, for medical attention, legal advice, clothing, drugs, etc. It can be done.

Parking problems are going to be solved. Most of the merchants are interested in doing what is necessary to bring revitalization about, and all of this is encouraging for the future of the entire Quad-Cities area.

The Chamber, of course, is not only interested in Downtown, even though that has high priority right now, we are vitally interested in the entire area, such as Mitchell and the Chain of Rocks Road area, Pontoon Beach, Venice and Madison.

There is much to be done, and as usual it takes leadership and people involvement to do it.

When all is said and done, it is people who do things.

This area is blessed with an awful lot of good, intelligent, hard-working citizens who need only a small spark to start what can be the most productive year of our life.

We are encouraged by their desire and attitude, which means we are looking forward to a good year in 1974 with good growth and progress.

TWO COMPANIES NAMED—Illinois Power Co., Inc., and Sargent and Lundy Co. have been named in a two-count suit filed in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville by John R. Schneider. He alleges on Oct. 13, 1973, while an ironworker at the Baldwin Power Plant of Illinois Power, he was welding sag rods and a particle of hot material landed on his leg causing a severe burn. He seeks $75,000.

Protestant Welfare reports record aid

In the past 12 months, Protestant Welfare Association has provided more relief assistance to the needy than in any time since the organization was formed, members of the PWA board of directors were informed at a meeting last week.

Mrs. Marie Whittle, office secretary, read a report of welfare activities in December, which included 33 cases involving a total of 82 persons.

Referrals were made to the office by citizens, ministers, Granite City, Venice and Nameoki Township Relief offices, Coordinated Youth Services, Public Aid, Granite City Police Department and the United Fund.

Twenty-three orders were issued in December, the PWA secretary said. Christmas grocery orders totaled $3 and cost $805.

Separate food orders, rent and utility payments amounted to $440, and nine supplies of clothing from the store room valued at $75, also were distributed.

In addition to grocery orders issued to elderly persons, a Girl Scout troop assisted the association by taking care of seven elderly persons, plus three families with small children, Mrs. Whittle said. She reported that nine families seeking aid immediately before Christmas also were helped.

The board met at the First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand Avenue. Edward Stone gave the opening prayer and Clarence Baumeyster, president, was in charge of the business session. Mrs. Irma Taylor, board secretary, reviewed actions taken at previous meetings and Mrs. Minnie Dillard read a financial report. The next meeting was set for Feb. 19 at the First United Presbyterian Church in Granite City.

Charles Reimers offered the dismissal prayer.

RESTAURANT ENTERED
About $40 in rolled change and some canned goods were stolen in a burglary at Doris' Restaurant, 1830 State St., it was reported last week. There were no signs of forced entry, officers said.

Foster parents needed

Applicants are needed in Madison County who are interested in offering their homes for the foster care of teenagers, it was reported today by the Department of Children and Family Services.

Circumstances leading to placement of children by the department often are due to family conflicts, broken relationships, and the inability of their own parents to make a go of it. Normal behavior problems exhibited by all teenagers are often exaggerated by foster children because of their feelings on confusion and rejection of not being in their own homes, a department spokesman said. Caring for a teenage foster child goes far beyond providing an adequate physical environment, but requires extra understanding and patience on the part of the foster parents.

Raising one's own natural children does not necessarily indicate success in caring for teenage foster children. It is important for foster parents to be able to tolerate behaviors that would differ from the behaviors they would expect of their own children, the spokesman said.

The primary consideration in selecting foster parents is finding those persons who can accept the child as he is, while helping the child explore alternative ways of behavior. Applicants should be mature people who have fulfilled their own emotional and psychological needs and thus are able to help children who are struggling for self-identity and attempting to meet their own needs, the department noted.

While foster parents are responsible for the day to day care of the child, the agency provides a wide range of supportive services for the foster parents and the foster child, including contacts by a social worker, psychological evaluations and psychiatric consultation, if necessary.

While the state does pay a monthly boarding check for the children in foster care, it must be emphasized that this amount is to cover basic expenses for the child and often there will be expenses for which the parents will not be reimbursed. Medical and dental expenses, along with such items as school expenses, also are covered by the department.

Being a foster parent for teenagers requires a capacity for acceptance and understanding, tolerance for frustration, and a potential for recognizing and identifying each child's individuality and specific needs along with the ability to relate to these needs, it was pointed out.

Persons desiring more information on the requirements and expectations of being foster parents for teenagers may contact the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services, 116 Hillside Ave., Edwardsville, 656-8520.

Course in Hong Kong, Red China

The Belleville Area College is opening new areas in the academic field of education. This summer of 1974 the college will offer a course that will include a trip to the Orient.

The course carries four semester hours of college credit which can be used toward an associate degree and will be transferable to four-year colleges. The course will be under the supervision of Dr. Kenneth Luke, an instructor of history at BAC.

The trip will last 32 days, and the itinerary will include one day prior to the trip being spent at BAC in background orientation by Dr. Luke.

The balance of the itinerary is to include 3 days in Hawaii, 3 days in Tokyo, 21 days in Hong Kong (with a proposed five-day visit to Canton, The People's Republic of China), and three days in Kyoto, Japan. The main part of the course will be taught at the Chinese University of Hong Kong which enrolls over 3,000 students and has a worldwide reputation for its excellence in Chinese studies.

In Hong Kong, the classes of instruction will be conducted by Chinese Nationals and will deal in 19th Century China, the republican movement, the long march, consolidation of power and current trends.

The areas of Chinese society will deal with urban areas, rural areas, minority Nationalists, military government and the political thought of Mao Tse Tung. The last phase will include the Chinese family, Chinese philosophy and religion, Chinese literature, Chinese opera and art.

Other subjects to be included will be the history of Hong Kong and the Mandarin period. All of the courses will be given in English.

To be eligible for the course, an individual must enroll as a student at Belleville Area College. He need not be a student at present.

To be eligible for enrollment in the course, the applicant must be a teacher, a college student or a high school senior who has been accepted by a U.S. college. Others not currently in the education field may be accepted by submitting suitable recommendations.

Dr. Luke has traveled extensively in Europe, the Orient and around the world and has

MRS. TOMMY W. BODKINS. She is the former Miss Robin A. Sanders, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Karius, 1817 Third St., Madison, whose wedding took place Saturday evening at St. John United Church of Christ. (Markly Studio)

Miss Robin A. Sanders, Tommy Bodkins are wed

The wedding of Miss Robin Ann Sanders and Tommy Wayne Bodkins was solemnized in a candlelight setting at 7 o'clock Saturday evening at St. John United Church of Christ. The Rev. Paul Surbey, pastor, officiated at the double ring service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Karius, 1817 Third St., Madison. The bridegroom lives at 919 Lee St. Madison. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard J. Bodkins, reside on Rural Route One, Doniphan, Mo.

Bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums interspersed with greenery decorated the altar, and the nuptial music included the theme from "Love Story."

The bride chose a gown of white organza over taffeta. Chantilly lace trimmed the high neckline and detailed the cuffs of the long sheer sleeves. The skirt and detachable train were lavishly adorned with Venice lace.

She wore a chapel length veil of bridal illusion, edged with Venice lace, and she carried a cascade of white carnations and yellow miniature carnations intertwined with greenery and baby's breath.

Miss Debra Burns was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. David Frey, the bride's sister, Mrs. Terry Rhoads, a sister of the groom.

Jim Owens wins Pack 28 derby

The annual "Pinewood Derby" of Cub Pack 28, sponsored by Parkview PTA, was staged last week at the school during the January pack meeting.

From a field of 44 cars, Jim Owens' model placed first and earned the contestant the top trophy. Runnersup trophies were received by Rodney Storer, second place, and Jeff Owens, third.

Dave and Suzanne Brooks conducted the race, with Cubmaster Marvin Meng officiating at the starting gate. Finish line judges were Glen Thorberg and Gary Welborn.

Den 1 under the leadership of Gerry Storer gave the opening ceremony and presented the colors. Cubmaster Meng announced the blue and gold banquet will take place Feb. 11 at the Long Lake Firemen's Hall.

He also displayed a card and thank you note from the Madison County Nursing home, where the Pack 28 cubs sang Christmas carols and decorated a tree for the patients with handmade ornaments prior to the holidays.

The monthly attendance award was won by Den 4, led by Mrs. Erma Rash and Mrs. Becky Welborn.

THE SCHERMER BULLETIN
Here's the first 1974 bulletin. Besides the weather, a lot of things have been happening. Our holiday business was great. The auditors are here today and we'll get the bad news as to whether or not it was all worth while. Surprisingly we had few employees sick and very few new bands.
January 3 Avery entered Barnes Hospital for his second cataract operation. His right eye was done successfully in 1971. The left eye is now taken care of and that is the end of that. Leo left for Chicago on the 10th for his annual Christmas buying trip accompanied by Gail and Ruth. They picked a good week to be gone.
Herman is leaving today for the National Association of Retail Grocers convention being held in Las Vegas.
We have a new man in the dairy department. His name is Larry Donohue and we think you'll see some action in that department.
Here's a flash. Idaho potatoes at 10 lbs. 95¢. 100 lbs. bag $8.49. Don't wait too long. Idaho Potatoes are good keeping potatoes. This weeks ad has 75¢ pork chops. We recommend these for your freezer. Also the chicken fried steaks at 6 for 89¢. These are cooked. Just heat and serve.
Well, we think that should catch things up. See you in the store.

Gardenaires sponsor students

The Gardenaires Garden Club is cooperating in a speech contest of the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc., by sponsoring two students from Granite City high schools.

Local club members heard Kathy Shennell, 16, a student at Granite City High School North, and Thomas Scott McRaven, 16, representing South High, deliver their speeches on the topic "Trees Today for Life Tomorrow."

Tape recordings and typed manuscripts of both speeches are being forwarded to Mrs. Jesse McDonald of Downers Grove, High School Gardeners state chairman for the Garden Club of Illinois, Inc., for judging, local club officers reported.

Students in the 10th through 12th grades across the country have participated in local contests. Their entries will be judged initially at the district level, with the winners to progress to state and national competition. The national winners will be invited to speak at a youth luncheon during the national council's convention in Boston, Mass., in May. Travel and living expenses will be paid by the national organization and Sears, Roebuck and Co.

Knowledge of the subject, organization of material, clarity of presentation and oration, voice inflection and enunciation and the emphasis projected are among the criteria to be used in selecting the winning contestants. District and state winners will be announced in April at the state garden clubs' convention at the Sheraton-Oakbrook Hotel in Chicago.

"Trees" also is the January theme at the club's Mini-Garden Information Center at the Granite City Public Library. The display notes the methods of identifying common trees in the winter landscape, and a number of resource books on trees available to be checked out by library patrons are included. Free copies of "Trees Without Trouble" and "Guidelines on Pruning Evergreens" may be obtained at the center.

The Gardenaires members will meet in February at the home of Mrs. Charles Kohl, 2340 Gary Ave.

MRS. SCHEINDEL HOSTS CIRCLE MEETING

Life and Lot of Women of the Bible was the lesson given at a meeting of Circle Two of United Presbyterian Women's Circle last week.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Fannie Scheindel. Mrs. Mary Werner was organist. Irene Pearson gave the dedication of the least coin and Burdine Holtzner gave the year book of prayer.

Lutheran officers are installed

New officers and Church Council members were formally installed last week in ceremonies at St. John Lutheran Church, St. Clair and Dale avenues.

Those installed were: Harold Hackney, president; John T. Severine Sr., vice-president; Paul Hieser, secretary; William Goebel, treasurer; Ralph Hackney, assistant treasurer; and Jon Lottstetter, Joseph Margolis, John T. Severine Jr., John McMillan, Robert L. Young Sr. and Timothy Van Hoven, financial trustees.

Members of the board of elders include: Donald Detorling, Karol Dyka, Glen Owen, Paul Hafner, Harold Gebhardt and John C. Severine. Also installed were several of property trustees: Rudy Diak, John Papp, James Hornmann, John T. Severine Sr., Ronald Henke, Robert Henke and Floyd Pricer.

Board of evangelism members are Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Settlemore, Mrs. Denise Schmitz and Mrs. Betty Hackney. John C. Severine and Franklin Roberts are now serving as Lutheran Bureau commissioners; Greg Jones as Sunday school superintendent; Dominic Greco, assistant superintendent; John Kubrik, honorary treasurer of the educational building fund; and William Goebel, acting treasurer.

Jaycees mark 59th anniversary

Illinois Governor Daniel Walker has proclaimed this week as Jaycee Week in Illinois and has asked local organizations to cooperate in the observance.

The governor said the purpose of the week is to focus attention on these young men and the work they are doing, and to emphasize that the Illinois Jaycees have done an outstanding job in the field of human improvement.

The annual observance celebrates the founding of the Jaycees in 1915 when Henry Glessner saw a need for a young men's civic group and organized the first chapter in St. Louis.

The movement spread so rapidly that in 1920 the U.S. Jaycees was formed with 24 cities represented. The Illinois Jaycees were formally organized in 1931.

Built on a solid foundation of creative opportunities for leadership training through community betterment projects, the Illinois Jaycees today, over 14,000 strong, are active in 285 communities within the state.

According to Illinois Jaycee President Bob Sturgeon of Crystal Lake, "The Jaycees are deeply involved in 'People Programs' this year, with specific emphasis on educational and awareness programs on alcoholism, venereal disease, criminal justice and human improvement."

ILLINOIS JAYCEE WEEK. A proclamation designating this week at Illinois Jaycee Week throughout the state is signed by Governor Daniel Walker, right, for State Jaycee President Bob Sturgeon of Crystal Lake. Granite City Jaycees began a membership drive today to mark the annual observance locally.

Owen Ross, president of the Granite City Jaycees, said today the local chapter will concentrate its efforts to increase club membership during the next few weeks. A goal of 34 new members has been set, he added.

An orientation meeting was held Sunday at the home of Darrell Weible, Jaycee vice-president, to kickoff the membership drive. Both active and prospective new members attended the event. Young men between the ages of 21 and 36 years interested in joining the Granite City Jaycees are invited to contact any Jaycee member for information.

The Granite City chapter has several associate members over 36 years old and currently is considering lowering the minimum age limit to 19, Ross said. Local Jaycees sponsor benefit projects for deprived children, provide assistance at monthly immunization clinics at St. Elizabeth Hospital, help sponsor public eye screening tests and entertain hospitalized youngsters, among other endeavors.

Business Women greet 'Young Careerist'

Mrs. Linda Givens, 2707 Harvey Place, a third grade teacher at Nameoki School, was introduced to 45 members of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club as the 1974 "Young Careerist" representative at a dinner meeting last week at Charlie's Restaurant.

Mrs. Valerie Stevens, Young Careerist chairman, was in charge of the program and introduced the club's nominee, who briefly described her background, hobbies and achievements to the membership.

Mrs. Stevens explained the purpose and criteria in selecting a young career woman to represent each BPW club in competition at district, state and national levels.

The colors of red, white and blue were used extensively throughout the room decorations, reflecting a

George Washington and Abraham Lincoln birthday theme. A large white hat trimmed in red, white and blue and a tall multi-colored candle graced the head table. Dinner tables held small U.S. and Illinois flags and tiny pins and coin banks, also in the patriotic color scheme, were placed as favors. Each member and guest also received a poster detailing the history of the American flag.

In a candlelight initiation ceremony, conducted by Mrs. Shirley Lybarger, chairman, and Mrs. Verna Lengyel, three new members were inducted into the club. They are Shirley Lybarger, Juanita Jern and Mary Scarsdale.

Mrs. Lillian Marzolf, BPW president, was in charge of the business session and an election of nominating committee members to prepare a slate of officers for presentation at the March meeting. The new members were Mrs. Vernice Wortman, Mrs. Pauline Weir, Mrs. Edna Kohlbrecher, Mrs. Sylvia Wright and Mrs. Lengyel.

In other action, the club voted contributions to the Equal Rights Amendment ratification campaign and the Career Advancement Foundation Fund, a National BPW project.

Mrs. Marzolf and Miss Annellen Smith, president-elect, will attend a Presidents' Council meeting for District 14 officers at 6:30 p.m. Jan. 30 at Lewis and Clark Restaurant, East Alton, it was announced.

Phase I and Phase II classes in a Personal Development course will be offered each Thursday at 7 p.m., beginning this week, in the home of Mrs. Becky Slate, 2904 Benton St. Participants will attend sessions for an eight-week period, the program chairman said.

Several local BPW members reported plans to attend the 9th annual Legislative Conference at the Ramada Inn, Springfield, Feb. 16. Registration will start at 8 a.m., and a special pre-conference rap session is planned at 9 p.m. Feb. 15.

Mrs. Kathryn Smithson was accepted as a new member. Local club members, who served with Mrs. Stevens on the Young Careerist selection committee, included Mrs. Weir, co-chairman, and Mrs. Alice Mitchell, Mrs. Alvord, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Ruth Walk, Mrs. Bonnie Lazenby and Mrs. Genevieve Grady.

Luncheon topic—antiques

"Antiques and other old things in Lovejoy Library: A new look at the art and architecture of Louis Sullivan" is the theme of a 12 noon luncheon meeting Wednesday, Jan. 23, in the Centennial Room of the University Club at SIUE.

The public is invited to the luncheon-program, sponsored by the SIUE Women's Club antique interest group. John Celuch will survey and interpret Sullivan's work, illustrated with slides made from rare photographs.

Celuch is in charge of production of special instructional materials for Audio Visual Services at SIUE and recently was named one-half time as a staff assistant to the faculty of the School of Fine Arts, with responsibilities for the Architectural-Arts Program at the local university.

As an undergraduate at SIU at Carbondale, Celuch became interested in the works of Sullivan. Celuch received his bachelor of fine arts degree at Carbondale and expects to receive his master's degree in that field from SIUE in June.

Much of the material in his illustrated lecture is a result of his work and research for his master's degree. Celuch joined the Audio Visual Services staff at SIUE in 1969 as an illustrator. Four months later, he was called to service and spent more than two years in Vietnam. He returned to SIUE in February 1972.

The program will include some little-known facts about Lovejoy Library's "old things," along with helpful guidance to the library's resources on antiques. Those who do not wish to attend the luncheon may hear Celuch beginning at 1:30 p.m. in Room 0055 of the library.

Missionary convention at Bethel Evangelical

A Missionary Convention is planned Jan. 27-30 at which missionaries of the Bethel Evangelical Free Church, 2450 Stratford Lane, will report on their work in the United States, Africa, and West India.

This is the first opportunity that such a convention could be arranged because the foreign missionaries never were all home at the same time, church officers said.

The mission was established in 1927 when a group of businessmen in St. Louis recognized the need of a gospel witness in the Stalling area. After an invitation from a small group of interested citizens of that area to start work there, the Stalling Gospel Mission was established.

A large group of missionaries in foreign countries and the United States soon became a part of the ministry of this church. Presently, there are missionaries and three organizations that constitute the outreach ministry.

The missionaries were the first to reach the "stone-age" people in New Guinea. In less than 20 years, Bible schools and hospitals have been established in that area. Reports will be given during the convention of the drought and starvation in the Niger Republic in Africa, of Israel and the work in the U.S. among Jewish people, and of Rescue Mission workers' help in Newsway, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Kentucky. The public has been invited to attend the services. A nursery will be provided. The schedule for the convention is as follows: Jan. 27: 9:30 a.m.—missionaries in Sunday school; 10:45 a.m.—missionaries in the morning worship service; 4 p.m.—missionary seminar question and answer period; 5 p.m.—snacks; 6 p.m.—missionary reports; 7 p.m.—missionary reports. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday services will start at 7 p.m. and follow the same sequence.

Optimists hear utility speaker

A new inspection program designed to prevent serious problems in distribution of water supplies was explained at a meeting of the Granite City Optimist Club Thursday noon by Ronald Scrabce, assistant-distribution superintendent of the East St. Louis and Interurban Water Co.

David Fox, Optimist president, announced the club will hold an evening meeting Thursday, Jan. 31 at Charlie's Restaurant. The meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Fox reminded Optimist members that the group will hold a joint meeting with the Rotary Club and guests of other service clubs Thursday.

GC teens to hold Walkathon

Both Granite City high schools will sponsor a Walkathon for the March of Dimes during the spring months. Harry Cook, faculty adviser to the Student Council at Granite High South and Walkathon chairman, announced today.

Student leaders for the special benefit event will be Kenne Kibort, South Student Council president; Janet Morlen, North High Student Council president and Kathy Miller, council vice-president at North.

The three young people were selected as council representatives to the March of Dimes Teen Action Program's annual convention in Chicago last fall. While there, they met many leaders from the National March of Dimes Foundation and were greeted by Scott Hafen of Las Vegas, Nev., the National Poster Child. The trio also was honored by the Madison County March of Dimes Chapter in special ceremonies which served to introduce this year's Madison County Poster Child Brian Isaak.

Mrs. Glen Chaboude, Granite City March of Dimes Committee chairman, was among those attending the county program.

School cafeteria. Room mothers are planning to provide Valentine parties for pupils, it was reported. Members interested in volunteering their services to help at the school's annual picnic on May 31 were asked to contact the picnic committee, consisting of Mrs. Gail Gargac, Mrs. Pelikan, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Virginia Alterson.

Also arranged for Thursday from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. was a "kaffee klatch" for parents of Johnson pupils, to be held in the

Johnson parents view slides

Slides showing various student activities at the Russell D. Johnson Grade School were presented by Al Mueller, a middle intermediate teacher, at a meeting of the Johnson PTA last week.

In the business session, a nominating committee was appointed to prepare a slate of officers for next year. Those named to the committee were Mrs. Donna Peterson, Mrs. Nancy Pelikan, Mrs. Fran Taylor, Waltraud Cokl and Johnson Principal Richard Brinkoff.

It was announced the Granite

City Area PTA Council's annual recognition banquet will take place Feb. 21 at Granite City High School North. Each PTA unit will select a nominee to receive its "outstanding worker" award.

Mrs. Margy Love, Mrs. Katie Wilson and Brinkoff were asked to nominate the Johnson PTA award recipient. A meeting of the Area PTA Council also is planned Thursday, it was reported.

Homes use 5th of U.S. energy

This is the first in a series by University of Illinois Extension home economics specialists considering why and how American families might change their habits cope with higher prices and tighter fuel supplies—and yet still live well.

During the past few months, consumers have been inundated with energy conservation requests to turn down thermostats, turn off lights, wash with cold water, and join car pools or use public transportation.

One-fifth of the energy consumed in the U.S. goes for home use, notes Dorothy Goss, University of Illinois family economics specialist. And of this amount, space heating uses 57.5 per cent; water heating uses 14.9 per cent; and air conditioning uses 3.7 per cent.

Relatively little—only 13.4 per cent or 2.6 per cent of the national total—is used in the kitchen; a breakdown lists cooking, 5.5 per cent; refrigerating, 6.0 per cent; and freezing foods, 1.9 per cent.

"But using efficient equipment and practicing efficient use will help ensure everyone having some of the energy allotted for home use," Miss Goss adds.

"It will also help offset the higher prices for energy." Along this line, the U.S. Department of Commerce has announced a voluntary program encouraging manufacturers to place "energy efficiency" labels on major household appliances.

Each label will tell how much energy an appliance uses and give a rating that will help consumers compare one appliance's energy efficiency with that of other brands, as well as with that of similar products.

"Room air conditioners will probably be the first appliances to be so labeled, and this should occur early this year," Miss Goss explains.

"Later, appliances such as refrigerators, freezers, washers, dryers, dishwashers, ovens, ranges, water heaters and furnaces will be labeled."

'SALOME' SHOCKER
On Jan. 22, 1907, the first performance of the opera "Salome" with its "Dance of the Seven Veils" so shocked Metropolitan Opera directors that they banned any further performances.

are as follows:

1. P1—List all the double vowel and compound words that are in headlines on the front page.

2. P1-C3—The bid for the Broadway underpass was how many dollars over the estimated construction cost?

3. The paving for the Broadway relocation is how much short of a mile?

4. P1-C2—Write the exponents of the amount of the contract for expansion work to be done at the Depot.

5. P3—Reese's ad. Do a greater than, less than exercise with the ad.

6. P8-C7—The SUE Cougars won by how many points?

- P1-C7—Total assets are how much greater than total liabilities at First Granite City National Bank?

8. P20-C7—What per cent of the area's key mishaps occurred in Granite City?

9. P23-C1—What is the meaning of the new word you would have if you put an accent mark of the final "e" in resume?

10. P26—You have a bicycle to sell. Write an ad with some good adjectives to help you sell it.

11. P25—VW's ad. How many miles per gallon did the average domestic car get on the trip? How many MPG did the VW get? What is the meaning of the word domestic?

12. P23-C1—Do you have any records of the "big band era" that you could play?

13. P34-C6—What is the average amount of income tax allotment that has been distributed to the Q-100?

14. P35—Scherner's ad. Why is the apostrophe after the "s" in boys' and before the "s" in men's?

15. P33-C4—What per cent of the names submitted by Mr. Brooker will be used to make up the state school board?

16. How many of the names will not be used?

17. P35-C1—What per cent of the persons taking the eye screening test were referred to eye doctors? What is glaucoma?

18. P36—For students writing a description and possibly the interpretation of the cartoon, it can be used for language arts from the fourth grade through high school.

19. A newspaper on the East Coast which studied the local program noted that "an educational cartoon, it can be used for language arts from the fourth grade through high school."

20. It quotes Wilson as commenting that "never before have we achieved such growth in one school year."

21. The 350 pupils were checked by a nationally standardized test and have attained progress a year beyond the national average for their ages.

22. The newspaper states, "In the program, a newspaper story about a new labor contract becomes the subject of a problem in mathematics; headlines on various stories present a geography lesson; a natural disaster or a space flight becomes a science lesson; and editorial cartoons, pictures and advertisements supply the youngsters with social topics."

23. "Standard textbooks are kept on the shelves but are used only for reference."

24. "In a nearly every category covered in Science Research Associates tests, Wilson said that the average scores for each class from kindergarten through the sixth grade shows a progression of a full year and in some cases as much as a year and a half."

25. "But Wilson and his teachers think the pupils at Emerson have learned even more than last spring's testing indicates."

26. "The tests won't reflect the broad knowledge of current things the kids are picking up, Jack Farrow, a fourth grade teacher, believes."

Annual Venice ball Saturday

The 36th annual ball sponsored by the Venice Crippled Children's Organization will be held from 9 p.m. Saturday to 1 a.m. Sunday at the Venice-Madison American Legion post home, 740 Broadway, Venice. Funds raised by the event will go to the Madison County March of Dimes drive, to the Shriner's Hospital for crippled children and for the benefit of Venice youngsters with birth defects.

Music will be provided by the Noblemen, an 18-piece band made up of members of the Temple Shrine and the Shrine.

Honored guests will include Mrs. Anna Mae Peck, executive secretary of the Madison County Chapter of the March of Dimes and her husband, Calvin Peck, and Milton Morris of Venice, chairman of the Madison County March of Dimes chapter.

The committee handling arrangements for the annual event includes officers of the crippled children's group—William "Mike" Ebersold, vice-president; Lorene Morris, secretary; and William Ohlendorf, treasurer.

Committee chairmen are Hank Sveda and Phil Smith, luncheon committee, William Woodruff and Arlyn Hoffman, refreshments, Clifford Cayner, toastmaster, and Don Phillips, Darlene Hoffman and Diana Scherrille, program; Jack Tolliver, tickets; Sybil Robbs and Marlene Miller, games; and Margaret Lee, booster committee.

The decorating will be done by the Catholic Youth Organization of St. Mark's Church with Jeff Tolliver and Susan Wells as co-chairmen.

Saturday night's ball will follow the road block program in which contributions will be sought from motorists passing through the intersection of Broadway and Klein street in Venice Saturday morning.

Members of the Venice Volunteer Fire Department and of American Legion Post 101 will conduct the road block operations. Co-chairmen are William Meehan Jr. and Joe Garcia.

6-county planning will stress economic development

By JOHN BELLCOFF
Member, Executive Board
Southwestern Illinois
Metropolitan Area
Planning Commission

Throughout 1973, SIMAPC continued its activities in comprehensive and functional planning in Southwestern Illinois.

It continued to emphasize professional planning services as a means for stimulating responsible growth and development throughout the region.

Existing major programs of the Commission produced tangible results in 1973. Other new programs were initiated which hold the potential for similar future benefits in the Commission's recently expanded jurisdiction.

SIMAPC's water quality management program of 1973 continued with the refinement of interim plans which have made $100 million in construction grants eligible for funding by the federal government.

Approximately $20 million of this amount has been received by units of local government throughout Southwestern Illinois, and it appears likely that additional grants within this program will also be awarded during 1974.

The Commission's regional surface drainage program for Madison, St. Clair, Monroe and Randolph Counties is now in its second year of production. This program is being prepared in close coordination with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and the state of Illinois, and is intended to identify implementable solutions to problems which exist on a drainage basin and watershed basis throughout these counties.

This five-year program has received broad-based local, state and federal support, and is expected to successfully produce an implementable surface drainage plan and program for the urban counties region.

Economic development has received increased emphasis in Commission activities, particularly because SIMAPC's jurisdiction now includes Madison, St. Clair, Monroe, Randolph, Washington and Bond Counties.

This increased jurisdiction has enabled the Commission to apply for organization of an Economic Development District, and such a designation would increase the region's eligibility for receipt of federal construction and development grants or loans.

The Madison County Overall Economic Development Program was completed and certified by the U. S. Economic Development Administration in August 1973.

SIMAPC's regional economic development program is in its first year of production, and will include the formation of a regional economic development committee to be composed of civic and business leaders throughout Southwestern Illinois. The program is intended to contribute positively to the provision of increased economic development opportunities throughout the region. The program is being closely coordinated with other Commission activities in land use, utilities and services planning to assure compatibility.

Local-oriented programs initiated in 1973 included the Speaking series launched today

The first program in a winter colloquium series was presented this afternoon by Psi Chi and the department of psychology at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Thomas C. O'Brien, associate professor of elementary education at SIUE, was to speak on the subject, "A Piaget-Oriented Educator Pokes Around." O'Brien, director of the Area Teachers' Centers sponsored by SIUE, notes that Jean Piaget of the University of Geneva is a researcher on the growth of children's thinking.

Psi Chi is a national honorary society of the psychology profession, with a chapter on the SIUE campus. Kenneth M. Kleinman, associate professor of psychology at SIUE, is coordinator of the colloquium series.

Kleinman said other speakers in the series, their subjects and the colloquium dates will be: Frank Gilner, associate professor of psychology at St. Louis University, "Systematic Desensitization-Extinction and/or Counterconditioning," Feb. 11.

Jesse Goldner, assistant professor of law, St. Louis University, "To Be Treated or Not To Be Treated: The Rights of Psychiatric Patients," Feb. 25.

Gary K. Burger, associate professor, University of Missouri at St. Louis, April 8, subject to be announced.

Arthur C. Zahalsky, chairman of the department of biological sciences, SIUE, "A Biologist Looks at Memory: Some Biochemical Correlates," April 15.

And William P. Ahlbrand, associate professor of secondary education, SIUE, "Perceptual Discrepancy and Attitudes Toward the Lesson," May 13.

preparation of eight community plans, three county plans, eight community zoning ordinances, and the initiation of special management studies, dealing with such issues as local policies, planning and fiscal management.

The technical Advisory

Planning Services (TAPS) program of the Commission continued to receive principal emphasis as a major SIMAPC function, and services are provided to approximately 80 units of local government on a sustained basis. It is hoped that the TAPS program can be expanded during 1974, particularly because of the need for such planning and its relationship to capital improvement programs, the use of general revenue sharing money and the projection of needs for proposed special revenue sharing allocations.

Other future SIMAPC programs propose to include participation in planning activities for new major improvements, such as the Waterloo-Columbia Airport, rapid transit system, and the region's "new town" located in Monroe County. SIMAPC is in its tenth year of existence, and has steadily increased its capabilities throughout its history. We hope to continue to broaden the scope of activities in the future, and to continue to provide high-quality professional services to units of local government throughout Southwestern Illinois.

Hope for another record year at GC Steel in 1974

Granite City Steel expects another record year in 1974, said Friday.

The expectation is subject to the extent the steel industry is affected by the fuel oil shortage, he added.

The local division of National Steel Corp. is conducting an "aggressive energy conservation program in all operating departments to conserve use of natural gas, fuel oil, electrical power and gasoline," Veeder said, and there is hope of avoiding serious loss of production this winter.

With 1973 a record year for production and shipments, employment rose from 4,800 to 5,200.

There was great demand for steel throughout the year, and fourth-quarter shipments were the highest ever in the steel industry, he related.

Shipments of GC Steel in 1973 totaled 2,100,000 tons of plate, hot and cold rolled sheet, galvanized sheet and other flat-rolled steel products, up more than 45 per cent from 1972.

Veeder said such results show conclusively that the 1971 merger into National Steel was in the best interests of the men and women who work at Granite City Steel and live in the communities around our plant.

"This is a much stronger steel mill than would have been possible otherwise."

"Substantial shipments of raw materials from other National divisions allowed us to carry out a major coke oven rebuild without serious production losses," he noted.

Price to review energy shortage

Cong. Melvin Price, D-23rd District, will be on the campus of McKendree College, Lebanon, to discuss the energy crisis with students and the public Jan. 25. He is chairman of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy.

Price will be at the college at the invitation of Prof. William D. Hodge, who is conducting a seminar on the energy crisis during McKendree's interim term. This is a month-long term held during January when students study one subject, in depth. Price will begin to speak at 10 a.m. Friday in the Charles S. Denen Student Center.

BURGLARIZE OFFICE
The offices of Lindley Trucking Service, Inc., 1701 Grand Ave., were burglarized and $25 was stolen from two desks last week. The offices were ransacked. Entry was gained by breaking and opening a window on the south side of the building.

Apartment development opens

The development includes eight one-bedroom and 56 two-bedroom units. Immediate occupancy is available, the developers said. Helen Worden is superintendent of the apartment complex.

A new street, Parkview Drive was built in conjunction with the apartment project and has been dedicated to Granite City. Dale Construction Co. handled the building and contracting work.

The four 16-unit buildings were designed by Arthur J. Sitzwohl and associates of St. Louis in a Colorado Contemporary style, using stained rough-sawn timbers, earth-tone brick and Aspen-style roofs.

In announcing completion of the project, Daniel J. Bragg, director of multi-family development for the Lieberman Corp. and head of Westview Management Co., managers of Parkside, said, "We believe in the future of America, the future of housing and the future of Granite City."

SUIT AGAINST RAILROAD
A $50,000 suit has been filed against the Terminal Railroad Station by Dennis Clark. Clark alleges that Jan. 8, 1974, while he was a switchman in the Bremer Car Yard of the railroad, he was struck by a board protruding from a boxcar and was injured.

GARAGE LOOTED
A car tape player, an electric drill and a chain saw were stolen from the garage of Roy Boyer, 3001 Warren Ave., it was reported last week.

BURGLARY ON W. 20TH
A television and 50 tape recordings were stolen from the home of Peter Wirtz, 2041 W. 20th St., it was reported last week. Entry was gained by forcing a rear door to a hallway and forcing another door to the kitchen of the home.

Illinois in transition from dumps to sanitary landfills

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency is sponsoring a series of seminars throughout the state to assist in an "orderly transition from pollution-causing garbage dumps to sanitary landfills."

Richard H. Briceland, director of the Illinois EPA, reports the day-long seminars will help landfill operators comply with regulations enacted by the Illinois Pollution Control Board to protect the environment.

"Sanitary landfills are replacing garbage dumps in every part of Illinois," Briceland said. "Through these seminars, we at the Illinois EPA hope to help solve problems of concern to the landfill operators and to persons who live near landfills."

"Garbage dumps can cause both air and water pollution as well as breeding areas for rats, mice and insects," he said.

Proper operation of sanitary landfills requires that all solid waste be compacted and buried daily and that necessary steps be taken to eliminate pollution to groundwater.

"The health and safety hazards, as well as the visual blight, caused by garbage dumps are fast becoming things of the past in Illinois," Briceland said.

"The Illinois EPA is encouraging development of recycling and resource recovery from solid waste."

"This is an area where there is a strong convergence of energy conservation goals and of environmental protection goals."

"At the present time, however," Briceland said, "landfills are the most feasible system of disposing of the 20,000 tons of waste materials collected daily in the state."

The sanitary landfill seminars are being coordinated by Thomas E. Cavanagh, manager of the operator certification program in Illinois EPA to assist persons throughout the state in understanding current pollution control regulations and in complying with those regulations, Briceland said.

Similar training programs are held as a service to operators of public waste supplies and of sewage treatment plants.

The seminar schedule for sanitary landfill operators is:

—Marion, Jan. 29, 9:30 a.m., Illinois Regional Office Building.

—Aurora, Feb. 5, 9:30 a.m., Holiday Inn.

—Champaign, Feb. 14, 9:30 a.m., Illinois Regional Office Building.

—Rockford, Feb. 20, 9:30 a.m., Illinois Regional Office Building.

—Peoria, Feb. 27, 9:30 a.m., Illinois Regional Office Building.

SUIT AGAINST MOTORIST
William O. Hasty Jr., 18, of 1601 Clark Ave., has filed a $20,000 suit in Madison County Circuit Court against Mary L. Cox. He alleges she was the driver of a motor vehicle which collided with his motorcycle on Nameski Road at the entrance to the Bellemore Village Shopping Center Sept. 12, 1973, injuring Hasty.
